Garbage. That is all that can be said to describe this game. Garbage.. Played just the time to understand I didn't know what I was doing - literally. I also published a "first look" video in the community hub with my gameplay and a silly meme at the end of it to explain my feelings - no intentions to just speak ill of the game, but still a negative vibe for me.

Yesterday my vid was banned and today I know (by Steam support), it was on game's dev, not an actual Steam mod and they cannot deal with it - I should contact developers. Since I already have been in a similar situation not long ago and since this is the discussion forum's status (<https://i.imgur.com/V3jRYvG6.jpg>) and video hub status (<https://i.imgur.com/Vo1mMc88.jpg>) as today, I won't bother with that.

I know this feels like a revenge review but I hope I still have the right to speak my mind. Banned video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=As-trY71Rk0. I'm really enjoying this game. Its easy to get into .the mechanics are explained well. Heaps of stuff to do. Worth the price no doubt about it.

.It's no third season of Wakfu, but this broght a big ol' \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665in' smile to my face. The animation leaves something to be desired, but all in all, I enjoyed the 46 minutes I got. Also, Ogrest is almost as based as Yugo.. Nice. Thanks Paradox for including this DLC-ish type upgrade.. riding giant rats to battle talking bears while firing rpgs at clown hoard, yeah it's worth it. https://youtu.be/VHACMCwq2wM0. Not sure if I like it yet, the areas I have flown dont seem to have any relevant detail.. As the game is still in it's alpha phase, there is a lot to be forgiven. For example, if you pressed to Interact with a crate twice instead of just once, there would be a box saying to Take Out popping out whenever you press Interact with other objects even after the crate has disappeared. Also, when putting the input of numbers at shops or crafting, the keys also activate the inventory slots and items would be equipped. In terms of the literal "landless" gameplay, the open world is considered small and I hope there is a radar on the top right to have a compass to tell the direction besides relying on the sun. Or perhaps having the stars as a guide of direction would make the game more interesting. It would be great to have a speed /acceleration meter on the boat as well so that we can upgrade the boats to move at a higher speed as we craft more items for the upgrades. With a lack of tutorials, and description of items, it was kind of challenging to know what items do and what effects it brings such as the hydro turret and interception tower. Also, hacking for blueprints become confusing as it was not introduced at the start of the game if there is a certain correct answer to using the different servers.

Improvements still needs to be done to the UI layers but it's forgiven as the game is still in its alpha phase. Perhaps it would be

better to have much more features/improvements added in for the next upgrade. I keep finding it difficult to get around places such as getting off the boat by the ladder and having to jump off instead. Also, I thought we could move the floating platforms around as we travel but no, it was just there. The doors still have an UI box there which I think you guys placed it there to put the scripts for opening the door.

Overall, the game still needs improvement and it would be more fun if it's multiplayer with a bigger town on the sea. The map also seems limited in terms of what other places there are to explore and the main storyline wasn't really clear. It would be great if Professor Goodwell pops out more often to give some tips or reminders on what to do. I would recommend this game to people who love open world survival on a post-apocalypse setting.

I have also done a game stream review at <https://twitch.tv/kicholiz> and uploaded them to Youtube

<https://youtu.be/UHoQ1SG7IN8>. Literally hundreds of customers since 2011 have voiced that they can't get this game to work. Meridian the publisher and technical support to this game does absolutely nothing about it. Four years and still no working game, no technical help no matter how many times you email them. This game needs to be taken off the Steam store forcing the developers and publisher to re-address all teething issues. The fact that they continue to slog the unaware public $10.00 for a product that does not work is a testament on how uncaring this company is and the fact that Steam also has turned a blind eye is not flattering to their customer support either. DO NOT BUY!! Without contracts mode to back it up, it kinda makes this game the worst hitman compared to any of the others. The story is somewhat intriguing but is in contrast to what was setup by the other hitman games and because of its linear structure, all of the assassinations feel very forced and repetitive not leaving much room to the player to decide what to do. Combat is fun but still somewhat more action-oriented than a hitman game needs to be. With contracts mode i was able to ignore any problems but still not necessarily feeling at all like a good or fleshed-out hitman game. In my opinion just buy either the newest hitman or blood money they are by far the best games in the entire series. Or just buy goat simulator or some $hit.

Just fantastic! The worst thing I can say about this game is that it is not long enough! I loved everything about it, and if it was bigger and had more missions, I could easily play for oblivion like 100 plus hours. Great job creators! I even got a kick about reading the credits book [?] hopefully you will work on a sequel (triple the size of this one) thanks for 5 plus hours of incredible VR gaming. I've been playing Dofus since I was about 6 or 7 and I have yet to run out of new ways to play the game or even finished the game on my main character. The immense variety stuns me everytime I start playing again after a break. I can honestly say this has been my favorite game since I was a little kid and I will continue to play it until the game stops being updated or I stop breathing.. monika's thighs be like. This is an extremely fun game!!

Rescue missions are fun. Dev should add some more rescue missions!. STOP ! ! ! !

step 1 never buy this

step 2 deinstall if u buy it

step 3 buy a good game

or if u like buying♥♥♥♥♥ENJOY. Out of the three ND games I've played, the other two being Shadow Ranch and Blue Moon Canyon, this is by FAR the WORST. The gameplay is different then that of the other two and though I see what the delvelopers were trying to do, making it a bit more about deduction and detective work, they FAILED. You're able to interact with very little in the enviroments, making them very dull, you have to spend a LOT of time on the phone, there are little things that are never solvled/explored and throughout much of the game it felt like I was grinding instead of enjoying the game.

However beyond all of that the thing that I found to be the most aggravating is that this game takes all of those mini games from previous ND games, multiplies them and makes every advancement of the plot completely reliant on tedious, repetitive tasks.

Skip this one unless you've played all the other and do not get it at full price!. Really having fun with this game. Love the retro style, bonus points for making the hero an adorable cat with a hat ;)

There's a different boss battle for each level (for which the revive-option does help sometimes if you mess up :P). Park Bound gameplay is as simple as movement and jumping, but custom levels means you get a lot of content packed into this tiny platforming game.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8SqXbwBOTd4>. Just finished. Much wow. 10/10 Would cry myself to sleep again. Must go back and correct all ♥♥♥♥ ups.
